

Women in Listed Derivatives Announces Four New Corporate Sponsors

CHICAGO (May 14, 2019) – Women in Listed Derivatives (WILD), an organization which promotes career advancement and professional relationship-building among women in the OTC & Listed Derivatives Industry, today announced four new corporate sponsors: ADM Investor Services, Cboe Global Markets, Gelber Group and IMC.

“Thank you to ADM Investor Services, Cboe Global Markets, Gelber Group and IMC for joining WILD as corporate sponsors,” said Cathey Curley, WILD president. “We’re grateful for the continued support from our members, sponsors and the industry as a whole.”

“Thank you to these four organizations for your sponsorships with WILD,” said Katie Cleland, WILD vice president. “We look forward to continuing WILD’s mission of supporting women in the listed and over-the-counter markets, which would not be possible without the support of our members and sponsors.”

More information on WILD’s corporate sponsorship opportunities can be found on www.womeninlistedderivatives.org. These four organizations join the list of WILD’s current corporate members, including:

- bp
- CME Group
- FIS
- OCC
- Societe Generale
- Wells Fargo

WILD began informally in 2009 and first established its board in 2012. As a non-profit, WILD promotes career advancement and professional relationship-building among women in the OTC & Listed Derivatives Industry through social and educational events and whose mission it is to highlight and learn from industry role models, encourage career development and support the advancement of women in OTC & Listed Derivatives. More information can be found at www.womeninlistedderivatives.org or by emailing info@womeninlistedderivatives.org.

Media Contact
Caroline Gillard
carolinegillard5@gmail.com
(708) 860-9954